Specification

The examiner has not checked the specification to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible minor errors (grammatical, typographical and idiomatic). Cooperation of the applicant(s) is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant(s) may become aware of in the specification, in the claims and in any future amendment(s) that applicant(s) may file.

Applicant(s) is also requested to complete the status of any copending applications referred to in the specification by their Attorney Docket Number or Application Serial Number, if any.

The status of the parent application(s) and/or any other application(s) cross-referenced to this application, if any, should be updated in a timely manner.

Oath/Declaration

The oath or declaration is defective. A new oath or declaration in compliance with 37 CFR 1.67(a) identifying this application by application number and filing date is required. See MPEP §§ 602.01 and 602.02.

The oath or declaration is defective because:

It does not identify the city and either state or foreign country of residence of each inventor. The residence information may be provided on either on an application data sheet or supplemental oath or declaration.

Inventors Mauchamp and Vincent have incomplete information on the provided declaration.

Information Disclosure Statement

Document WO 97/05679 has been considered, but the citation thereof is queried because it does not appear relevant to the invention under examination.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by the provided pages from Betty Crocker's Cookbook or US 2003/0049359 to Kulkarni et al.

The instant claims are directed to a "cement retarder" but this limitation has little weight in assessing patentability. A known composition must only be capable of performing the stated function. Accordingly, the claims are directed to no more than an animal or vegetable oil containing salt or sugar.

The references supplied teach pie crusts, pizza dough or salad dressings containing oils, lard or mayo in amounts commensurate in scope with the amounts claimed herein. Note the recipes also can contain salt or sugar, optionally catsup or chili sauce (which would function as salt, sugar and pigment) and minor amounts of water, for example in the pie crust and pizza dough. These recipes are considered to anticipate the claims as they are currently drafted. See pages 289 and 157 of the cookbook and page 3 of Kulkarni et al.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 22-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over US 2003/0049359 to Kulkarni et al. taken with US 5,334,242 to O'Toole.

These claims are directed to application of a material onto a cementitious surface and removal thereof.

Kulkarni et al. Discloses a dough composition that can contain salt and vegetable shortening. The dough can also contain flavored oil. See [0027] and the claims. The dough can be in the shape of a pizza crust.

O'Toole is relied upon for the teaching of a cementitious material. Clearly, a user would be motivated to place the dough of Kulkarni et al. on the stone of O'Toole because the pizza must be baked. This implies the coating of claim 22. Regarding claim 23, when the user cleans the stone of residual dough, the claimed limitations are implicitly met.

The limitations of all claims have been considered and are deemed to be within the purview of the prior art.

Conclusion

Applicants are advised that any evidence to be provided under 37 CFR 1.131 or 1.132 and any amendments to the claims and specification should be submitted prior to final rejection to be considered timely. It is anticipated that the next office action will be a final rejection.
